

TEST PREP WORKSHEET -- OPTIONAL

Have a couple of topics ready for Monday that you are interested in and could explain using these dimensions of depth and complexity.

RULES How can you describe, categorize, or classify the rules in the 1950s? How can you prioritize the most important rules in the 1950s? How can you determine the relevance of a certain event or events in the 1950s?	ETHICS How can you determine bias in the 1950s? How can you test assumptions in the 1950s? How did migration affect the 1950s? How did human conflicts affect the U.S. in the 1950s? How did international conflicts shape the U.S. role in the world in the 1950s?
TRENDS Compare and contrast cultural trends. Compare and contrast trends of different eras. Explain what influenced voter patterns. Use criteria to explain the importance of a trend. Use evidence to explain the influence of a trend on society in the 1950s and today.	PATTERNS What patterns can you find in the 1950s? Can you find primary and secondary patterns that start in the 1950s and carry on to today? What are the causes and effects of particular events in the 1950s?